Student Council Report

Bobbi Kelley Termed Eligible As Council Passes New Act

By Dick Handler

The Student Council sat down to positive action at an emergency meeting last Thursday afternoon, when they unanimously passed a resolution requiring all elected members to carry a minimum of 12 semester hours each semester of the term.

The bill, to become effective beginning with the Spring semester, was the outcome of the question of eligibility of Barbara Kelley, Senior class Council member. Barbara is now carrying six semester hours. Since part-time students are not allowed to vote for Council members, the question of a part-time member serving was brought up.

In view of the fact that no rule could be found to cover the case, Barbara was allowed to remain seated. She will, however, have to carry a minimum of 12 semester hours next semester if she intends to stay on Council.

The following members were absent from the meeting (numbers in parenthesis indicate number of meetings missed so far this semester):

George Sweeney (2), Gary Singer (1), Danny Leeson (2), Vic Muniec (1) and Barbara Kelley (1). Two meetings have been held this Fall as of publication date.

The Scribe is not informed as to whether these absences are legitimate or not.

Committees set up include Suggestion Box (Charlie Cellar and Bob Levine) and Publicity (Vic Muniec and Steve Michaels).

Another motion passed (also unanimously) requires the first and second alternates of all classes to come under the same attendance requirements as regularly elected Council members.

A constitution revision committee was formed with Barbara Ahlstrand, Dave Miller, Dick Kaln and Andy Demotzes as members.

Ziegfeld Follies Will Be Theme of "Thunder '53"

By RON GOLD

The Ziegfeld Follies, the theme of this year's dazzling presentation of Campus Thunder, has almost 250 aspiring thespians trying out for key roles in the University stage presentation. Plans for the fall show are now being put into action by Director Albert Dickson and his staff at the Little Theatre.

The show, consisting of a cast of 40, will bring the glamor and romance of the "golden days" to the Klein Memorial on Friday, Nov. 21; Saturday, Nov. 22 and Monday, Nov. 24.

Only Three Days

Campus Thunder will not be able to run for a full week due to a cut in the budget. A longer run might have been scheduled, had the students' attendance been greater than it was in the past.

There were more outsiders, some coming from New York and Boston, than there were students at any one of the four Thunder performances last year.

Though still in its formative stage, Campus Thunder is promising a good box office return, according to Bob Weiss, ticket chairman. He also announced that tickets will be available to the student body as soon as possible.

Fraternities and sororities will receive formal notice as to reservation of blocks of opening night seats.

Flo Meets Genie

Though they never met in real life, Florenz Ziegfeld and the Thunder Genie will share the same stage stardust, as the spirit from the strange land of make-believe once again carries the audience through a laughable and song studded edition of what has been called "one of the finest campus productions in the country."

The beautiful Ziegfeld girls will appear along with the ever glamorous Thunderettes, New England's answer to Flo's fondest and wildest dreams.

All the gracious gallevanting will be done in time to the sprightly romantic music from the pens of Steve Martin, Harry Ahlberg, Sime Neary and Billy Robbins.

$2,500 Available In Essay Contest

Senior students will have a chance to compete in an essay contest, which is being sponsored by the National Council of Jewish Women.

Prizes ranging from $500 to $2,500 will be given for the best paper on "What Academic Freedom Means to Me". The maximum length of these papers is 2,500 words, and the deadline for submission is Dec. 31, 1952.

Students, interested, should contact Dr. Millhauser, third floor, Bishop Hall, for an entry blank and further details.

Law Schools Grant Exams For Admission

Students planning to enter law school will have testing periods during the coming year, according to the Educational Testing Service at Princeton, N. J.

All applicants in more than 100 centers throughout the United States, on the mornings of Nov. 15, 1952; Feb. 21, April 25, and Aug. 8, 1953.

The Graduate Law Students may take Graduate Record Exams on Friday and Saturday, Nov. 7 and 8. Next year's dates for tests are Jan. 30 and 31, April 17 and 18, and July 10 and 11.

Both groups are advised to obtain bulletins and applications for the tests four to six weeks in advance of the desired testing date from Law School Admission Testing Service, P. O. Box 592, Princeton, N. J. Complete applications should be in at least 10 days before the testing date.

Byerly Chosen As Delegate To Convention

by BOB PAUL

Edward F. Byerly, chairman of the Music Department has been chosen as a delegate to the American Symphony Orchestra League's first annual convention in Philadelphia next Tuesday. The first session will last one week.

Professor Byerly is one of the 36 members picked out of 175 applicants. He is one of the two representatives from the state of Conn.; only three of the 36 delegates are from New England.

Eugene Ormandy, of the Philadelphia Symphony Orchestra will be in charge of the conference which will act as a clinic for conductors of symphony orchestras from all over the United States. The group will study techniques of orchestral scores and will have a chance to conduct the famed orchestra in selections that they have conducted with their own groups in the past.

In addition to this position at UB, Mr. Byerly is the conductor of the Bridgeport Community Orchestra, a group of musicians made up of UB students and local talent.

A former member of the El Paso Symphony Orchestra, Mr. Byerly has been asked to publish an account of his experiences with the League in the "Music Journal," a Fred Waring sponsored magazine.

Directory Proofs Out Check Bulletin Board

Proofs for the 1952 Student Directory, both Day and Evening Divisions, are posted on the Fones Hall bulletin board.

Please check your name for accuracy and make whatever corrections are necessary. Proofs will be removed tomorrow afternoon.

WICC Offers Varsity Time

"Varsity Time," an official weekly radio program of the University will take to the airwaves on Oct. 11, from 11 to 11:25 A. M. for its third consecutive year, according to Bob Paul, director and writer of the WICC show.

Abby Elstein joins up with Paul to handle the record, news, and patter portions of the program. Dick Handler, editor-in-chief of THE SCRIBE, will handle the interview portion of the show.

The music for the show is selected by a poll taken from a campus cross-section made up of students, staff members, and faculty. The show's news comes from THE SCRIBE news room.

Carlsons Donate Scholarship Fund

Lou Saccone, Ray Hirth and Arnold Epstein are the recipients of the first Carlson Brothers Foundation Scholarship offered at the University of Bridgeport. This scholarship provides $1800 for full tuition and will be administered by the Scholarship Committee.

The generosity of Phillip and William Carlson has been expressed in the past by their donation of $10,000 to the Engineering Technology Building, and it is for these men that the Carlson Lecture Hall is named.

A Disgrace

Last Saturday night's exhibition of cheering at the football game was shameful. Not only did the students walk out on the team, but what few students did remain made themselves seem like clowns.

We're talking about the type of cheering. Al Lepow, SCRIBE Sports Editor, has his say on the cheering itself in his column, SPORTSCOPE, on the next page.

If students attend games, the least they can do is cheer. If they don't cheer for UB, there is no reason that they must try to embarrass the cheerleaders or cheer the opposition.

On Saturday evening, a small group of students seated in the UB bleachers let loose with one cheer after another for one of the cheerleaders, Brandeis and anything else that came to their heads.

If this same group were real UB students, they would have put their effort into cheering our team on. They didn't.

We heard part of the game on a portable radio, and, what little cheering could be heard, was for Brandeis.

It's not a question of outsiders hearing how miserable our spirit is. It's a question of our team and the Freshmen hearing how lousy the spirit is with the upper classmen.

Here's Why

In response to the complaining going around campus about the large amount of space devoted to advertising in this paper, we are publishing our budget in full.

Last year we received $2,000 from Student Council. This year we were cut to $1,300.

INCOME — Student Council .....	$1,300
Evening Division .....	300
	<hr/> $1,600

EXPENSES — Printing, engravings, paper, press membership, expenses, salaries, etc. .... $4,900

DIFFERENCE TO BE MADE UP IN ADV. .... $3,300

NUMBER OF ISSUES ..... 30 (must be cut to 25)

INCHES PER ISSUE AVAILABLE FOR

ADVERTISING, PICTURES, COPY ..... 170

DOLLARS PER ISSUE IN ADV. .... 120

INCHES PER ISSUE IN ADV. .... 100

Therefore, The SCRIBE must either pack each issue with advertising or come out less often. We cannot get any more money from the University of the Student Council. There is no more money to get. Neither source has any left over.

If the students want a larger SCRIBE with less ads, they must pay for it. The SCRIBE is pressing Student Council for an increase in the Student Activity fee so that The SCRIBE and A.I.L. other campus activities will be able to function properly.

Within a few weeks, SCRIBE staff members will be canvassing the campus to see whether the student body will be willing to pay more for their activities and get more.

Save A Buck

Many cars are being tagged by the local police for being parked in no-parking areas.

The University provides ample space in the Technology lot for students' cars. There's no reason why the cars aren't left there. There is plenty of space on Waldemere Ave. or Linden Ave., on the side of Milford Hall.

Isn't it worth saving a buck? If you think so, walk a block or so. You'd have to if you went shopping down town.

If you don't want to save the buck, let your car stay in the no-parking areas. We've heard a rumor that the cars may be towed away. Let's not give the police a chance to verify the rumor.

Dear Editor - -

Freshman Week may now be officially over; but the memory of a successful time still remains in my mind.

There are so many people to thank that I could not possibly thank each individual but I hope that they will realize that I shall always remember them as the nicest people to work with.

First of all, I want to give a big vote of appreciation to the wonderful Freshman class for their spirit of cooperation and fun.

Next, I want to thank all my friends here at the University of Bridgeport for helping me make these past two weeks the success that they were.

Above all, to the Freshman Committee, I extend my sincerest and warmest thanks for working with me since June; and helping me over the rough spots (and believe me there were a lot) and for their constant interest in making the Freshman welcome to the University. Without them I would never have been able to accomplish all that has been done.

Despite the fact that the official initiation is over, I'm sure that the Freshman will continue to meet all the swell people that make up the University of Bridgeport.

Once again, my deepest thanks to all of you.

GINNY TENNANT

We, the Beanie Court judges, would like to take this time to turn in our report as to the conduct, spirit and potentiality of the class of '56.

Dispensing with noble judicial talk, we'd like to talk in good plain English. We'd like to say "thanks for a swell time. We're sure that you enjoyed our little sessions as much as we enjoyed persecuting you."

All poor attempts at humor aside, we judges would like to say that the Frosh at UB are the finest and most human group of individuals that it has ever been our privilege to work with.

Here were a bunch of people who could take a joke and a brow-beating and still smile. Here, also, is a bunch of kids with a lot of heart, spunk and spirit. We doff our hats to you. We salute you, leaders of tomorrow.

We feel that this year's Freshmen can well act as a model for all classes. As a measuring rod of spirit, the Frosh were unique, as individuals they were warmly wonderful.

We hope that you enjoyed your intimidation here at UB, the only school that puts its Freshmen on a pedestal.

We judges would like to thank the Freshman Week Committee for grafting us our jobs and we'd like to offer judicial kisses to Ginny Tennant, whom we can't praise enough.

Thanks again to you Frosh. You're wonderful!

The SCRIBE welcomes questions from our readers. Questions pertinent to UB student life will be used and the student suggesting the query will be credited. This week's question comes from Larry Remington.

Question: What do you think of UB?

Answers: By the UB Freshman. Place: The UB Snack Bar.

Mary Ford, Exec. Sec'y. — It's different! ! !

Arch Currie, Industrial Design — I find the school in a very pleasant atmosphere, and the students seem to be extremely sociable. When added together, it should equal an enjoyable year.

Barbara Blitzer, Advertising — The food is great, the instructors fabulous, the campus beautiful, and besides all this it's cheap. ? ?

Beverly Lockwood, Exec. Sec'y. — Registration was quite confusing, but now that classes have begun I find UB exceptionally interesting. I think a good job was done on Freshman Week, particularly the picnic.

Henry Yagendoff, Sociology — I think that it is great here. I especially enjoy this out-of-town life.

Barbara Osborn, Sec'y. — I like UB because it is a small school and enables one to get acquainted with practically everyone.

WE'RE OLD MASTERS IN THE ART OF CLOTHES FOR COLLEGE

We may fall short in discussions of Plutarch and Plato, but we hold a master's when it comes to clothes and college.

It's a good idea to plan your clothes as carefully as you plan your course of study. Your money will go farther and so will you, if your wardrobe is PLANNED and your purchases budgeted. We've helped a lot of students with our P. B. A. (personal budget account). Why don't you find out how easily it works?

Wilkes Invades Candlelite On Saturday Afternoon

On Saturday afternoon, the Purple Knights play host to Wilkes College at Candlelite Stadium. Kickoff time is scheduled for 2 P. M.

The Knights, still looking for their first victory of the 1952 season, will also be out to avenge last year's 25-7 up in Wilkes-Barre, Pa., when the Colonels handed Bridgeport their first loss of the season.

Kicker Johnny Anderson, veteran defensive center for the Purple Knights. Despite the fact that John has never done any punting for the Knights before, his kicking has proved a valuable asset to the forces of Coach Walt Kondratovich. Anderson has averaged about 35 yards per punt thus far.

Still smarting over last week's loss to Brandeis University, Head Coach Walt "Kay" Kondratovich had the boys drilling throughout the week, concentrating on offense as well as defense. He was particularly disturbed over the five fumbles committed by the UB squad, and is working on the problem of holding onto the ball.

"Kay" praised the boys for not giving up when the going seemed rough, but still wasn't completely satisfied at the showing of the Knights.

Little is known about the present Wilkes team, except that they lost the services of Al Nichols through graduation. Nichols was a standout performer in the backfield for the Colonels, and was often mentioned as one of the best running backs in small college ball.

For Bridgeport, the probable starting line-up will be the same as in the last contest. In the backfield will be Hank Steffens, fullback; Dan Nastasia and either Joe Finklestein or Bob Perez, halfbacks; and Eddie Boyle at quarterback.

The line consists of Ray Glatkowski and Tom Tedesco, ends; Charles Petrino and Hal Trishman, tackles; Arnie Epstein and Jimmy Lee, guards; and Ray Hirth at center.

BULLETIN

Jim Schwab, ace defensive guard of the Purple Knights, has been lost to the squad for the remainder of the season. Jim underwent an appendectomy early this week.

Joe Dalgard, UB halfback, suffered a ruptured disc in his left knee and will be out indefinitely.

A third member of the gridsters, Tom Naples, suffered a cleat wound in the leg during the Brandeis game, but probably will be available for duty Saturday.

Four Female Frosh Chosen For Cheering

Four Freshman girls have been chosen to become cheerleaders. These four, plus two from last year and one male student, cheered their first game last week.

Under the direction of Jean Johnston, captain, and Doris Bowden, of last year's squad, the following Freshmen qualified out of a field of 40 students:

Lu Schneider, Sheila Haffner, Mary Royak and Judy Feller.

The lone male student on the team is Walt Lombardo, a junior, who went to UB two years ago and spent one year at Arnold College, Milford.

IM Football Play To Start Oct. 6

With play slated to start Monday, two leagues, one fraternity and one independent, will comprise the IM touch football picture this year.

As in previous years, a playoff between the two divisional winners will determine the University champion.

In hopes that more teams would enter, the entry deadline was pushed to Sept. 30, when a meeting of all IM team representatives was held. Rules were set up and the league established at that time.

by AL LEPOW

The students of the University of Bridgeport should be justly ashamed of themselves. After the disgusting showing the student body put up last Saturday night at the football game, they should walk around in humiliation, ashamed to show themselves or to look anyone straight in the eye.

The incident that we're talking about is not a new one, but rather a repetition many times over. How anyone can possibly walk out on his own team is beyond us. Last year the apathy of the student body hit its peak up at New Haven, when more than 50% of the students left the game before the second half even began.

Last Saturday, it was just as bad. By half time, barely half of the students had remained. After all, that was YOUR team down on the field, not only ours. Those boys, battered, bruised, and hurt, need and deserve your support. The winning of the game isn't nearly as important as showing yourself to be a true sportsman. The players did show themselves as such, which unfortunately cannot be said of the fans.

Put yourself in their shoes. How would you feel if you were playing your heart out and you turned around to glance at the stands only to see hundreds of people streaming out of the stadium? You wouldn't feel good I'm sure.

And from the fans that were in the stands, it was almost as if we were in a morgue. The amount of noise and cheering that could be heard on the field was almost as much as the noise made by a pop gun.

Why is it that at every athletic contest you always find the same nucleus of UB students attending. Why then, if these students can often travel hundreds of miles to show up at a Bridgeport football or basketball game, why can't the rest of the student body at least travel one mile to Candlelite Stadium and STAY for the entire game? Why too, can't these same people open their mouths and let the players know that you're behind them?

Why? Because the spirit of the students of the University of Bridgeport is dead, or at the most, gasping for its last few breaths. You can't blame the Freshmen either. By ratio, they by far put the upper classmen to shame. You can't blame the cheerleaders. Considering that they are a new group, they did an excellent job. So, by a process of elimination we come right back to the students. It is YOUR FAULT, no one elses. Surely, if I were you, I'd hang my head in shame.

Believe it or not, every week for the past two weeks, I have added to the end of this column(?) a plea for information and interesting little tid-bits about the students of this University.

Every week the big, bad editor came along with his trusty scissors and clipped the last two inches of type off without the slightest bit of hesitation. For this reason my pleas have thus far gone unpublished.

That is why I am starting this column with an appeal to all freshmen and upper-classmen to bring any and all information concerning any activities whatsoever of anyone on campus, whomever (or whoever) they may be. I NEED INFORMATION!!!

There are no large expense accounts or retired generals in the fraternities of UB, but there have been many new officers appointed and elected to head these groups. POC has Charlie Smith as president; Bill McGrath, VP; Ron Gold, secretary; Ron Brandenburg, treasurer; and Dick Handler, cor. res. sec'y.

Bob Millar is the president of TS and Dave Howard is VP. Fred Mills handles the treasurer's job, Joe Miley is secretary, Bill Hudoc is Alumni corresponding secretary, public relations are handled by Dick Kalm. Incidentally, ex-president, Dud Savard is home on leave from the Navy. Last but not least are the new officers of SPA fraternity. Al Zavadsky is president, assisted by Lou Saccone as the big VP. Joe Heine is corresponding secretary, and Vic Muniec is recording secretary. Ray Hirth is treasurer, with Joe Iovino as Alumni sec'y.

The girls at Wistaria Hall elected their officers for the coming year at a meeting held last week. The new leaders are: Martha Kelly, president; Barbara Heller, VP; Dorothy Seckler, sec'y.; Carmel Wenderoth, treasurer; Nina Silver and Rene Court, sports representatives and Harriet Guttman, social chairman.

CORRECTION. ... Last week KBP was reported to be having a dance on Oct. 17, at Glorietta Manor. Somehow this announcement was mixed with the announcement of the TS open dance to be held on Oct. 17 at the same place. For the record, here are the facts. (And I hope that they are right this time) KBP has a dance on Oct. 10 at Glorietta Manor called the Harvest Hop. TS is throwing a ball (more about this throwing of a ball later) at Glorietta Manor also, but one week later, on Oct. 17.

Romance Department. What is the matter with the people this school? Isn't anyone in love around here? That is the way it seems to me. I have not heard of very many affairs lately. Or maybe it is me. How about the freshmen fellows? I have yet to hear of any young man in the new class carrying out the romantic traditions of UB.

Abby Elstein is pinned again, but the odd thing about it is that the pinning was done by the same guy both times. Seems that she lost the first pin Bob Paul gave her, and he was generous (?) enough to give her another one.

Suggestion of the week. The young lady in Southport Hall who is having such a difficult time fighting off the UB boys should get herself a date book to keep the fellows separated. Proverb. ... Three fellows and one girl don't mix too well (At the same time).

Special to the girls. ... Watch out for the following boys. They tell me they are all on the loose this semester and looking. Bob Blatt, Jerry Maurer, Lenny Crystal, and Fred Mills are the gentlemen in question.

I was talking to a friend of mine the other day, and he told me that he was having trouble with his girl friend. It seems that his girl was getting a little too friendly with some of this young gentleman's pals. His brilliant comment was "Well, I guess it is time for a change. ... of friends, that is."

So much for humor. Back to fraternities. Hank Steffens is president of AGP, Fred Dillendik

Time to say good-bye for now. As Cynthia Persson, a freshman, told me in the Snack Bar the other day when I wanted to talk to her for a while, "I'd REALLY like to, but there is another — I have to see in the last stall. (You figure out what the blank means.)"

New Courses Listed At UB

By MYRA SEIDE

In addition to the University's regularly scheduled program, a new seminar for graduates is offered in the college of Education.

This plan has been endorsed by the Councils of Deans is now in effect. It has been applied to such new courses as group guidance, educational management, improvement of elementary school social studies and education 492 (research methods in education).

The College of Business Administration will offer courses in preparation for the Certified Professional Secretary examination which is sponsored by the National Secretaries Association.

An occupational advancement program for office personnel offers supervisory technique, general office information, personal adjustment and development, office management and understanding our economic system.

Other new courses are being offered in ceramics and German.

Levey Loan Fund Established At UB

A $1,500 loan fund in memory of Morton A. Levey, Class of '51, who died last February while in the Armed Forces, has been established here by Morton's parents.

The fund will be known as the Morton A. Levey Sigma Phi Alpha Memorial Loan Fund.

The first two recipients of the loan are George W. Hausel, an economics major, and Anthony J. Tomario, who majors in sociology.

Letters of application for the regular Sigma Phi Alpha $100 scholarship should be addressed to Al Zavadsky, president of SPA before Oct. 7.

1952 Wistarian Copies Available at PR Office

Copies of the 1952 WISTARIAN are available in the Public Relations office, second floor, Cortright Hall, and students are urged to pick them up at any time between the hours of 9 A. M. and 5 P. M., from Monday through Friday.

Attendance Rules Give Profs Say In Debarment

Attendance regulations will be the same as they were in the past with one glaring exception: reinstatement will be granted only by the instructor involved.

Formerly, a debarred student would have to report to Student Personnel where he would request readmittance to his class. Now, the instructor involved will have the complete say as to whether or not the absentee will be allowed re-entrance.

The student's faculty adviser can be called on to fill out a form which might sway the instructor one way or the other.

The rule for debarment will be the same as in past semesters: students are expected to attend all classes if they are on probation; cuts in excess of one week's

Job Seekers Should Check With Placement

All students interested in obtaining part-time employment are urged to register with the Placement office, third floor, Howland Hall.

Openings will be posted on the first floor bulletin board in Fones Hall. Students must be interviewed before attempting to accept offers as University job seekers.

Many jobs are available at present. Such jobs include: delivery work, factory help, sales help, maintenance work, mail room help, receptionists and office work.
